

Curriculum Vitae

Claudia Stoll
Claudia.Stoll@charite.de

Date of Birth: 04.01.1983
Place of Birth: St. Wendel, Germany
Nationality: German
Academic Degree: Master of Science
Member of following societies: Society of Light Treatment and Biological Rhythms SLTBR
Society of European Sleep Research and Sleep Medicine ESRS,
Deutsche Gesellschaft für Schlafforschung und Schlafmedizin DGSM

August 1993 – May 2002

Aggertal Gymnasium Engelskirchen
Schoolyear 1999/2000: Elkhart Memorial High School, Indiana, USA
Honor Roll Student
Schoolyear 2000/2001: Elected student representative
Diploma (Abitur)

September 2002 – August 2005

University Maastricht, Student at the Faculty of Psychology
Year 2004: Vice-president of Faculty Association
September 2004: Specialization in Biological Psychology
Spring Term 2005: Elective Courses at Brock University, Canada
Practical Training in Sleep Research Laboratory from Prof. Kimberly Cote
Bachelor Thesis: „The Stimulating Effects of Modafinil on the Central Nervous System“
Supervisor: Dr. Annemiek Vermeeren, University Maastricht

September 2005 – October 2006

Research Master „Biopsychology and Psychopathology“, University Maastricht, Neuropsychology

November 2006 – July 2007

Master Thesis at University of Zürich, Supervisor: Dr. Hans-Peter Landolt “Sleep EEG spectrum and its relation to learning and memory in elderly and depressed patients”

Current Occupation since October 2007

Sleep research at the Department of Sleep Medicine at the Charité, University Hospital Berlin
Supervisor: Dr. Dieter Kunz, Research Field: Light Exposure and Chronobiology
2008 - 2010 Marie Curie Scholarship for Training in Sleep Research and Sleep Medicine by the ESRS

Berlin, April 2010